Featured Instructor: Mike Stewart of Wildrose Kennels

$450 for 2 days

Mike Stewart is featured weekly on Ducks Unlimited TV and has appeared on episodes of American Birdhunter. He is the owner and operator of Wildrose Kennels based in Oxford, Mississippi and trainer of "Drake the DU Dog."

Participants will learn how to train their gun dogs for a variety of game through positive reinforcement, avoiding the use of electric collars, force fetch, spike collars, and other mechanical training techniques. You will see the difference in your hunting dogs after just one session.

All gun dog breeds are welcome. And don't worry if you don't have your dog yet. You can still learn and train with us; observers are welcome in the class.
